

Thailand Golf & Coaching Experience

Hosted by PGA Professional, Glenn Paul

Bangkok | 5 Days, 4 Nights

A golf experience with purpose

Join Glenn Paul for a premium, hosted golf experience in Thailand, designed for golfers who want more than just great courses and good company.

This five-day experience combines world-class golf, luxury accommodation, curated cultural moments, and on-course coaching that focuses on how you actually play the game.

The emphasis is not on swing mechanics.
It is on decision-making, strategy, mindset, and scoring.

Everything is organised.
You simply arrive, play, learn, and enjoy.

More than a golf holiday

Most golf trips are about playing as much golf as possible.

This experience is about:

Understanding why you score the way you do

Making better decisions under pressure

Improving course management and shot selection

Developing a clearer mental approach to the game

The coaching is delivered on the course, while you play, in real situations that matter.

You will return home with insights and tools that continue to benefit your golf long after the trip ends.

“I wanted to create a golf trip where players don’t just enjoy great courses, but actually understand their game better by the end of it.”
